

School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Kenwood High School

School Year 2024-2025

Revision Date 8/22/2024

In support of strengthening student academic achievement, Kenwood High School receives Title I, Part A funds and therefore must jointly develop with, agree on with, and distribute to parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy that contains information required by section 1116(b) and (c) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). The policy establishes the school's expectations for parent and family engagement and describes how the school will implement a number of specific parent and family engagement activities, and it is incorporated into the school's plan submitted to the local educational agency (LEA).

The Kenwood High School agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined by Section 1116:

- Involve families, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, Part A, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the school improvement plan under Section 1114(b) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).
- Update the school parent and family engagement policy periodically to meet the changing needs of families and the school, distribute it to the families of participating children, and make the parent and family engagement policy available to the local community.
- Provide full opportunities, to the extent practicable, for the participation of families with limited English proficiency, families with disabilities, and families of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language families understand.

- If the school improvement plan under Section 1114(b) of the ESSA is not satisfactory to the families of participating children, submit any family comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the local educational agency.
- Be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:
 - Parent and Family Engagement means the participation of families in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:
 - (A) families play an integral role in assisting their child’s learning;
 - (B) families are encouraged to be actively involved in their child’s education at school;
 - (C) families are full partners in their child’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
 - (D) other activities are carried out, such as those described in Section 1116 of the ESSA.

Description of how the school will implement required school parent and family engagement policy components:

NOTE TO SCHOOLS: The school parent and family engagement policy must include a description of how the school will implement or accomplish each of the following components [Section 1116(b)(1) of ESSA]. This is a sample template, as there is no required format for these descriptions. However, regardless of the format the school chooses to use, a description of each of the following components below must be included to satisfy statutory requirements.

JOINTLY DEVELOPED

Kenwood High School will take the following actions to involve families in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including opportunities for regular meetings, if requested by families, to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.

ANNUAL TITLE MEETING

Families will be invited to two annual Title I meetings to discuss the Family Engagement plan. Families will have the opportunity to make changes if needed.

Kenwood High School will take the following actions to conduct an annual meeting, at a convenient time, and encourage and invite all families of participating children to attend to inform them about the school’s Title I program, the nature of the Title I program, the families’ requirements, the school parent and family engagement policy, the schoolwide plan, and the school-parent compact.

The Two Annual Title I Meetings will Be held as follows:

1. Prior to Open House – Parents will have the opportunity to hear our school wide plan and all Title program offered at Kenwood High School.
2. Family Night- Will take place in the Spring like last year. Parents will be invited to hear about any Title I updates and Q & A.

COMMUNICATIONS

Kenwood High School will take the following actions to provide families of participating children the following:

- Timely information about the Title I programs
- Flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care or home visits, as such services relate to parent and family engagement.
- Information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the families of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language the families can understand:

The Parent and Family Engagement Policy will be distributed:

1. ParentSquare
2. Pamphlets located in the front office and information and information given to parents
3. Parent-Teacher Conference

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

Kenwood High School will take the following actions to jointly develop with families of participating children a school-parent compact that outlines how families, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and families will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high standards.

Kenwood High School will invite the PTO into the building to assist with various activities such as (homework, mentorship, volunteering, and proctor ACT and ACT Testing).

Every nine-weeks students will be recognized for their academic achievement. Parents will be invited to attend.

RESERVATION OF FUNDS

If applicable, Kenwood High School will take the following actions to involve the families of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent by:

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for parent and family engagement activities. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with families the budget for parent and family engagement activities and programs and how families will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

COORDINATION OF SERVICES

Kenwood High School will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support families in more fully participating in the education of their children by:

- Communicating in a timely manner to parents
- Welcoming involvement from parents in coordinating programs

BUILDING CAPACITY OF SCHOOL STAFF

Kenwood High School will provide training to educate teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of families, in the value and utility of contributions of families, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with families as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between families and the school by:
